Hey girl! I have a quick question for you :) I am a skin care and glamour technique specialist with Mary Kay Cometics and I am working on a Business Portfolio. I have been challenged to add 60 models to my portfolio this month in something called March Madness! I was thinking of people I would like to have in my portfolio and you were one of the first that came to mind!the best part is that its totally FREE! For helping me out with this, you will receive a ten dollar gift card from me! Is there any reason you would not want to help me by being my model and get pampered at the same time!?

Let me know your thoughts on this! I can't wait to get together with you!
